

The Worlds Most Advanced Behaviour Based Personal Feedback Report

This dynamic approach to measuring and reporting on behaviour goes further than any other methodology in terms of taking into account the complexity of human behaviour.

Each lens provides self-insight based on a unique model of human development.

The Five Lens developmental assessment goes beyond the 'what' of behavior; it exposes the underlying drivers, the 'why', and offers a pathway for coaching

MAXIMISE THE IMPACT OF COACHING

Deepen the discovery phase of any coaching process and clarify core-coaching themes quickly.

Gain a comprehensive understanding of the client, by getting feedback from five different perspectives.

Provides a structure whereby clients' growth and development can be tracked from the start to finish of coaching interventions.

The Five Lens Development Platform is a set of products, processes, and technology designed to maximise human performance. At its core sits the 5LQ, which is an integrated assessment tool.

The platform draws on the 5LQ questionnaire to produce reports that have layers of depth and provide possible development directions for the delegate. These individual results are then pulled through as a golden thread into a range of customisable products and processes.
